ALFREDO MURO GIVES SHORT CONCERT AT SPOTLIGHT MUSIC

The GSNC was very pleased to have a short concert with Peruvian guitarist Alfredo Muro. Señor Muro started the concert with a composition of his own based on the Canarios by Gaspar Sanz, and continued with four more pieces that concentrated on Latin American music.

About 30 people attended the half-hour concert in the café of Spotlight Music in Ft. Collins, where the GSNC has its regular monthly meetings. Señor Muro's biography and much more information is available on his official website at www.alfredomuro.com. He has also recorded 6 CD's which are available on his website.

Several photos shot during the concert are available temporarily on www.lytle-medicinelodge.info/CGsheetmusic.html.

We'd like to give a big thank you to Señor Muro for the concert, and keep an eye out for his concerts in the Boulder area and possibly northern Colorado!

BRINT LUKENS PLAYS AT GSNC MONTHLY MEETING and FEBRUARY PLAYLIST

Brint Lukens is a flamenco guitarist from Lakewood who plays at several restaurants around the Denver area. We were pleased to hear him play Monday evening in Ft. Collins. His playlist was "Tangos" traditional version and "Alegrias de Ricardo" by Niño Ricardo. Videos of his playing are available on the webpages listed above.

The playlist for the February meeting is as follows: John Leonard played "Romanza" (anonymous) and Adelita by Tárrega; Alec Feinberg played his own composition "Rain Song" (video available on the webpage); Danny Dishon played a piece from Book 3 No. 1 and Maria Luiza both by Julio Sagreras; Brint Lukens; and the Alfredo Muro concert.

UPGRADES TO WEBSITE

There are plans in the works to upgrade the newsletter and website. Soon the videos and photo galleries will be moved to the regular website at www.coloradoguitar.com. Keep checking for changes!
